LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. I. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1882. NO. 136.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Arthur will make Defense of his Signing the Chinese Bill.

Terrible Storm in Texas—Eight Persons Killed and Forty Wounded—Boycotting Game—Scoville off.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The President, having concluded that no necessity existed for defending his approval of the fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the Chinese bill, abandoned his half-formed intention of sending an explanatory message to Congress yesterday, and restricted himself to the usual form of notification that he had approved the bill on the day specified.

RESERVING A PARK IN ARIZONA.

Senator Harmon to-day introduced a bill to set apart a tract of land about sixty miles square, in Arizona, as a public park, to be reserved under the supervision and control of the Secretary of the Interior, like the Yellowstone National Park. The boundaries of the proposed new reservation are the parallels of the 35th degree, 45 minminutes, and the 36th degree, 45 minutes north latitude, and the meridians the 111th degree, 45 minutes, and 112th degree, 45 minutes west longitude, embracing a part of what is known as the Kabas plateau, and portions of Marble and the grand cañons of the Colorado river.

MORE INDIAN TROUBLES.

The following dispatch was received by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

TUSCARORA, Nev., May 8, 1882.

To Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington: The whites in Duck valley fear that the Bannocks are coming there. Some of the Shoshones think so. Fort Hall Indians talk bad about going out. There is danger for Buck valley from the Bannocks or Piutes. They ask me to send word back to-night. Nearly all the Duck valley Indians are waiting here to have a talk when their head chief comes in. They evidently know that something is wrong with the Bannock people. They generally want to know if there is anything in it. SMITH, Agent.

GUITEAU'S BILL.

Reed resumed his argument on the bill of exceptions in the Guiteau case this morning. He briefly referred to the question of jurisdiction, and then proceeded to discuss the evidence for the prosecution admitted at the trial and objected to by the defense, arguing especially against the evidence of Dr. Fordyce Barker.

CHICAGO CHIPS.

Mrs. Scoville will Try the Lecture Business Again.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Mrs. Scoville arrived from New York last night and is the guest of friends on the South side. She is arranging a lecture tour throughout the West.

THE CROPS.

A St. Paul special says: The warm rains of the past few days, coming just as seeding is finished, have been very favorable to crop prospects in the northwest and crop prospects are almost uniformly cheering.

HIBERNIANS IN COUNCIL.

Yesterday the annual convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians began here with delegates from all the States and Canadas. The body attended high mass at the cathedral in the morning, paraded the streets in the afternoon, and was given a complimentary ball by the Chicago societies last evening.

WASTING OUR CHILDREN'S HERITAGE.

The Tribune's Washington special says: An analysis of the letter recently sent to Congress by the Secretary of the Interior relating to the so-called lapsed land grants shows some extraordinary results. It appears first that the area of lands granted to the Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Oregon Branch of the Central Pacific, New Orleans Pacific and Oregon and California, is 115,458,218 acres, or over 180,000 square miles—more territory than is contained in all the New England States, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland; second, that before the time expired by which the granting acts required the roads to be finished, these corporations had earned by the construction of miles of railroad pro rata for the number of acres granted, only 18,615,193 acres, or 29,091 miles—less than one-sixth of the total amount offered, but a territory equal to all of New England, except Maine; third, that since the expiration of the time set for the completion of the road, or up to the present time, enough miles have been completed to entitle the roads, if the principal is admitted that corporations have an equitable claim to lands pro rata for each mile of road built, to 15,261,344 acres, or 22,283 square miles—a territory larger than the area of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Hampshire; fourth, that by the failure to comply with the terms of the grants these corporations have absolutely no claim to 83,674,478 acres, or 130,736 square miles, which is now withheld from settlement. This is territory nearly equal in extent to New England, New York, New Jersey and Maryland, or to the three great States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, with a population of 6,000,000 people.

The Same Old Story.

NEW YORK, May 10.—At the boarding house of Mrs. Eli M. Haight, 307 West Fourteenth street, Monday night, Capt. Frank B. Ames, aged 50, a prominent ship owner, of Bangor, Maine, shot and killed his wife while she was sleeping, and then killed himself.

Court Proceedings Stopped.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Scoville left to-day for Chicago, where he expects to find his wife. Habeas corpus proceedings will probably be dropped.

One of the Victims.

FALL RIVER, May 10.—Kidder, Peabody & Co., of Boston, are said to be swindled out of $25,000 by Green, of Columbus, Mass., who defrauded the Fall River Mills.

STORM RIDDEN TEXAS.

An Appalling Disaster—Eight Persons Killed, Forty Wounded.

DALLAS, Texas, May 10.—A most appalling storm disaster occurred Monday night, near McAllister. As the wires are down for miles full details cannot yet be learned. Reports of the extent of the storm are conflicting, but the most reliable is that eight persons were killed outright and forty wounded. Many of the latter will die. It is certain that the number is in no way exaggerated, and the probability is that the fatalities and casualities are much larger. The disaster occurred at the coal mines, three miles from McAllister Station, on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. The storms came from the southwest and southeast in a triangular shape, and appeared to meet and center near McAllister. A great deal of damage was done near Paris. The buildings at the McAllister mines were completely demolished. Temporary buildings have been arranged for the dead and wounded. Physicians have gone up from here, and all the aid possible will be sent forward. The storm extended generally through Texas, Arkansas and the Indian Territory. Railroad travel is suspended in nearly all directions by washouts. There was a great hail fall with the storm, which extended as far north as Fort Gibson.

Tit for Tat.

GREENFIELD, Mass., May 10.—As a result of the boycotting of G. C. Eist, a business man of Turner's Falls, by the Irish population on account of his having served on the McMillan Grand Jury, the Protestants have withdrawn their patronage from all Irish dealers, of which there are a number.

Don't Want a Postponement.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The Democratic County Committee met last evening and adopted a series of resolutions embodying a protest against the proposed postponement of the Democratic State Convention from June 20th to some time in August.

GARFIELD MONUMENT.

The Executive Committee on the Garfield Monument Association will meet next Monday in this city for the purpose of examining submitted designs for a monument and making awards. The site for the monument will also be determined.

FROM OTHER COUNTRIES.

Sir Charles Dilke—Why he Declined—Dealing with Secret Societies.

LONDON, May 9.—The Standard of yesterday morning says that Sir Charles Dilke declined the post of Chief Secretary for Ireland, because the seat was not accompanied by the promise of a seat in the Cabinet. The bill which he introduced in the House for the prevention of crime in Ireland will include clauses dealing with secret societies and providing for the trial of agrarian offenses by special tribunals. It is probable also that in cases of outrages, a heavy fine in the shape of compensation will be imposed in districts in which the crimes are committed. It is expected if the bill does not interfere with personal liberty and the right of public meeting, the Irish members will not offer serious opposition. Both Houses of Parliament meet Tuesday.

GLADSTONE'S OPINION.

LONDON, May 9.—Gladstone to-day, in replying to a message of condolence of Marquis Ripon, Vicerory of India, telegraphs: "The object of this black act is plainly to arouse indignant passions and imbitter the relations between Great Britain and Ireland."

RESPECT TO THE DEAD.

LONDON, May 10.—The House of Commons will adjourn to allow members to attend the funeral of Lord Cavendish.

BRITISH MINISTER MOBBED.

MARSEILLES, May 10.—The Moors stoned the English Minister at the Court of Morocco. The Sultan has imprisioned six hundred men for their connection with the assault.

COMING HOME.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 9.—The survivors of the Jeannette sailed to-day for Hull, England.

Destructive Fire.

REDGETOUR (Ontario), May 10.—A fire broke out in Bradshaw's furniture store this morning, and before checked, twenty places of business were destroyed, including the express and postoffices; Molsom's bank and the Elliott & Baker bank. Loss, $1,000,000.

Released.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 10.—A messenger from the commander of Fort Stanton, who was thrown into prison by the Mexican authorities and finally brought here under arrest, was released immediately on the presentation of the facts by Minister Morgan.

The devil has been particularly busy with our good city this week. Let us go back as far as Tuesday. On that day Dora Carson drowned herself in the bay; on Wednesday a weary mortal destroyed himself on O'Farrel street; Thursday, Dr. Woodward shot himself, and endevored to start his paramour across the dark river; yesterday, a French woman poisoned herself and a man blew out his brains in a bar-room. Meanwhile we have had a sort of dropping fire from San Jose—a dead baby and a murderous father. We are getting along nicely, We are making rapid strides towards the millenium. We are being civilized, Christianized and evangelized at a rapid gait. But withal, if there is an orthodox devil, we are willing to make an affidavit, from the foregoing facts, that this climate has fetched him this way to pass the summer with us.—S. F. Exchange.

The Reno Journal says the State is selling considerable land. The State Land Department is kept busy all the time. Farmers seem anxious to secure the best land. There is a good deal of it left yet, however.

When the types are made to say that an honest man is the nobbiest work of God, it is time to throw glass bombs into the composing room.

THE CHINESE BILL.

The bill for the exclusion of Chinese immigration takes effect on the sixth of August. Under the bill as passed four classes of Chinamen will have the right to come as now. They are, traders, teachers, students and travelers. The treaty provides for the admission of these classes, and the bill is made to conform to it.

It is presumed there are now en route, or prepared to make the voyage so as to reach us before the law takes effect, 75,000, which added to the 75,000 now estimated to be in the State, will give us 150,000 as our Chinese population, a number not far below our adult white male population, a fact not at all pleasant to contemplate.

Of the operations of the bill and the four classes of emigrants, the Bulletin has this to say:

"Each person belonging to any of these classes, before he can be taken on shipboard, must exhibit a certificate from the Chinese Government, stating the name, date, official rank (if any), the age, height, and all physical peculiarities, the former or present occupation or profession, and place of residence. There is no very accurate definition of any of these classes. A trader is a very indefinite sort of a term. For instance, a peanut vender might set up to be a trader. Besides, if a man came to trade, lost his pretended capital when he arrived, and had to take to some other employment, what is going to be done with him! Difficulties of a like character may be stated in relation to the other classes, if any organized system of evasion should be started. But we are not going to borrow any trouble on that score. If any scheme is hatched to defeat the law, we think our people will know how to deal with it. One thing is very apparent, that no effort can be made to render the law nugatory in these particulars without the corrupt connivance of the Chinese Government itself. If that fact should ever be established, we shall occupy a stronger ground than ever in dealing with the question when it comes up again."

RAILROAD TO THE SIERRA MADRE VILLA.

The conveyance of tourists to Pasadena and the Sierra Madre Villa has been during the winter, and is now, a large business; certainly large enough to tempt capitalists to construct a cheaper and better method of conveyance than the primitive one of the common wagon. And we are surprised to observe that while our bank vaults are literally running over with coin seeking investment, no one appears forseeing enough and courageous enough to undertake the construction of a narrow-guage road over the route mentioned. And what is to-day a large business will in a twelve-month be doubled, and go on increasing until it arrives to mammoth proportions. And with the increase of passenger traffic will increase in as great proportions or greater the freight traffic, as the new and extensive orchards and vineyards come into bearing. Certainly the outlook as a whole is very promising for a profitable investment for a cheap railroad.

In this connection we are reminded of a narrow-guage road, now running in Massachusetts, built at a cost of about $4,500 per mile. The rails are but ten inches apart, and weigh 25 tons to the mile, and in one place the grade is as steep as 155 feet to the mile. Trains run at the rate of 20 miles to the hour with perfect safety. The engines weigh eight tons, and draw two passenger and two freight cars. A road of this description could be run to the Sierra Madre Villa, fourteen miles, for, say making allowance for defference of cost here and at the East $75,000. And it would pay.

WILMINGTON HARBOR.

The House Committee on Commerce has taken final action on California river and harbor appropriations. Following are its recommendations: For Humboldt Bay, $40,000; Wilmington harbor, $75,000; San Joaquin river, $40,000; Sacramento and Feather rivers, $250,000. The amount for Wilmington harbor, although not all that was wanted, will do much good, and will pave the way for another appropriation next year to put the finishing touches on the work.

In this connection we are glad to state that it is believed the newly constructed extension of the S. P. R. R. from Wilmington to San Pedro will be worked on and after June 1st. When the road is worked, the coast line steamers will run to the wharf whenever the stage of water on the bar will admit of it, which will be at all times, excepting extreme low water.

A bride in Oregon received thirteen umbrellas as wedding presents. Her friends must have thought she is likely to lead a squally life.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

A Vessel goes to the Relief of the Point Barren Expedition.

Reed Concludes his Argument in the Guiteau Case—Indignation Meeting held at Tombstone.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, May 10. — A vessel will leave San Francisco next month, in charge of Lieut. Joseph S. Powell, for the relief of the Point Barrow expedition. Persons desiring to send supplies will forward them to Lieut. Powell at San Francisco, not later than June 30th, marked "Point Barrow Expedition, care U. S. Signal Office."

REED'S CONCLUSION.

Reed in concluding his argument in the bill of exceptions in the Guiteau case, made a strong appeal to the court to save the land from shame and her Judiciary from the disgrace of sending an insane man to the gallows. Court adjourned.

CHANDLER IS RIGHT.

Secretary Chandler does not favor the new Arctic expedition.

May Musical Festival.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The special advisory council of the May Musical Festival are figuring on the expenses. It is stated they were $120,000 to $125,000, while the receipts were $145,090, including the $25,000 paid by assessment on the guaranteed fund. Probably the two sides of the account will about balance.

Laid on the Table.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 10.—In the Methodist Conference to-day, a letter to the Sabbath Committee of the Southern Presbyterian Church promising to co-operate in the effort to protect the sanctity of the Sabbath by legal enactments and in an appeal to Congress to discontinue and prohibit the transportation of mail matter on that day, was laid on the table temporarily.

The Army of the Tennessee.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—A Reunion of the Army of the Tennessee is being held in the Peoples Theatre. The weather is fine and it has every prospect of success. Gen. W. T. Sherman called the assembly to order and said the day was chosen as an honor to those who captured Camp Jackson in the suburbs of St. Louis. They had forgiven the past, but not forgotten it; and would cherish the memoirs of the war forever. Bishop Fellows of Chicago presented a magnificent floral tribute sent by Chicago to St. Louis. Ex-Governor Fletcher responded. Gen. Sherman announced the committees, and the Secretary read reports showing nine thousand dollars cash on hand. Letters followed from absentees. Among the letters were one from President Arthur, from Vice-President Davis, General Grant, Secretary Lincoln, Generals Logan, Vest, McClellan, and S. J. Tilden. Adjourned to evening, and the society visited the Merchant's Exchange, where various speeches were made, after which they took a drive.

Doyle the Forger.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Judge Dyer, in the United States Court, overruled the motion of counsel for Doyle, the forger, for a new trial, and for the arrest of judgment, but gave until the 20th inst. to produce evidence of good character.

A Strike at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, May 10. — The iron workers at the Cleveland Rolling Works struck last night for an advance of 14 to 25 per cent. The company refused it and 3,000 men are out, and the mills shut down.

Picnic and Barbecue.

STOCKTON (Cal.), May 10.—A three-days' military encampment, picnic and barbecue opened yesterday morning at Goodwater Grove, two miles from the city. The affair is given under the auspices of the Veterans of the Mexican War, the Stockton Guard, Emmet Guard and Pioneers. An immense concourse of people from all parts of the San Joaquin valley are in attendance. An invitation was extended to Governor Perkins and staff.

Washhouses Declared a Nufsance.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 10.—The President's final decision in the Chinese Bill seems to have come about the same time that our grand jury came to their's, which is that the washhouses in town are a nuisance and that a fine of $50 be placed to the names of the several proprietors for allowing pools of water to become stagnant about said premises. The Chinese are somewhat excited and propose to have legal advice, and if possible cause a non-payment of the same.

TOMBSTONE TEARS.

They Hold a Monster Indignation Meeting and Resolve.

TOMBSTONE, May 10.—A great indignation meeting was held here to-night. An immense crowd was in attendance. Speeches were made by Hon. Mark Smith and Judge Robinson, of Tucson, one a Republican, the other a Democrat. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions, conveying the sense of the meeting and forward to the President and Congress.

TWO MORE TOMBSTONES ORDERED.

A Mexican named Antonio Fejuaroa while drunk to-day fired at officer Poening, while the latter was going to arrest him. The ball struck Poening in the groin and his life is endangered. Chief of Police Nagle pursued the Mexican, who fled, and refusing to surrender was shot and killed.

A Pioneer Publisher Dead.

SAN JOSE, May 10.—Francis B. Murdock, a pioneer resident and oldest newspaper publisher in this city, died at 9:30 this morning of paralysis.

ONE HARP HEARD FROM.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Herald, is very modest in taking to itself and party all the credit of the passage of the Chinese bill, in view of the Herculean labors performed by Messrs. Miller and Page. It reminds us of the fable of an offensive conglomerate that went bobbing over the waters, exclaiming, "See how we apples swim!"

WILL NOT BE.

The Spirit of the Times says that Hon. H. F. Page, will not be a candidate for Governor before the Republican Convention, but will be a candidate for re-election to Congress, from the Second Congressional District, which he has already represented for five successive terms. Page has won golden opinions from all classes. He has done admirably.

Mr. C. N. Wilson has made ye TIMES man to feel next door to "as though he had tumbled into honey." A can of that delicious substance, made by Wilson's bees when they were in the best of humor, evidently, found its way to our domicile on the hill and it must be classed as A 1. It is superb, and his bees are storing up hundreds of pounds just like it every day.

PERSONAL MENTION.

E. J. Baldwin will arrive from San Francisco this morning.

Mr. C. Fitzwilliam and mother will return to the city this morning after an absence of a couple of weeks.

Miss Mary Rennie, youngest daughter of County Recorder Rennie, of San Diego, is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. A. Adams, of Tustin, was in the city yesterday, and seemed as happy as a king over the prospects in that section.

Dr. Riggs, late of Tipton, Iowa, has purchased an improved property at Pasadena. The Doctor has been here but a short time, but he evidently knows a thing when he sees it, and hence the investment.

It was Miss Annie S. Clapp, daughter of I. B. Clapp, of Pasadena, who arrived from an Eastern visit last Saturday. Miss Annie doesn't write Mrs. before her name yet, as was erroneously reported by the telegraph.

E. S. Baker, special correspondent of the San Francisco Journal of Commerce, is still in the city. Mr. Baker has conceived a warm affection for Los Angeles, and if he were not a confirmed rover, it would not be surprising if he settled down here.

THE PRIZE CONTEST.

Pasadena and Los Angeles Clubs Fight for the "Boss of the Ten."

The shooting match between the Pasadena and Los Angeles clubs came off yesterday afternoon in the Arroyo Seco, near Pasadena. The beautiful gold medal, though strongly battled for by the local club of this city, was retained by the Pasadena club. Gilchrist consoles himself that if he did lose it, "it is still in the family." Mr. Markham was the lucky winner. The following is the score:

PASADENA RIFLE CLUB.

Gilchrist	4	4	5	4	4	3	4	3	4 2—37

In addition to the above, Mr. Corwin also shot a score, and Gilchrist an additional score, as follows:

Corwin	2	0	5	4	2	3	4	3	3 2—28
Gilchrist	4	4	4	4	4	4	4	3	4 4—39

For some reason, nearly every rifleman was at "odds" with his gun, and the average shooting was very low. The light was bad, and confused the marksmen.

The Recorder's Office.

April shows a larger amount of business transacted in the County Recorder's office than in any single month since the establishment of the office. After paying the expenses of the office, there remains a net profit to the county of $820. Mr. Lamb is put to his wits end to get through with the work, the Board of Supervisors refusing to allow him sufficient assistance. The class of work being done demonstrates also the healthy condition of the county, the bulk of it being conveyancing. For three consecutive days last week, when there were dozens of conveyances, there was not a single mortgage recorded. An attache of the Recorder's office, of San Francisco, who was in this city a short time since, made the assertion that there is as much business being transacted in the Recorder's office here as there is in that city, which speaks well for Los Angeles county.

FIDELIA NO. 11.

A New Lodge of the Degree of Honor Instituted.

D. D. G. M. W. Dunsmoor last evening instituted Fidelia Lodge, No. 11, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., and installed the following officers: Mrs. I. A. Dunsmoor, P. W. S. of H.; Mrs. Y. F. Barnes, W. S. of H.; Mrs. J. J. Woodworth, S. of H.; Miss E. Meyer, S. of C.; Mrs. J. A. Valder, S. S.; Mrs. Q. S. Hopperstead, S. Y.; Mrs. A. B. Chapman, S. W.; E. Fisher, I. W.; J. A. Valder, O. W.; C. A. Baskerville and J. J. Woodworth, A. to W. S. of H.; Mrs. A. H. Fox and Mrs. R. G. Cunningham, M. to S. of H. Thirty-five persons took the degree, and seventy-two are promised for the next meeting on the 23d instant.

Indecent Pictures.

Robert Scott, who was arrested yesterday on the charge of exhibiting indecent pictures to children, informed a TIMES reporter, last evening, that they were merely art cards, and were purchased by him in a San Francisco art store. Owing to the recent craze among the children for cards, he was constantly beset by children going past his store, to and from school, until he had given away about four hundred. He says that what he intended as a favor to the children has been perverted and misrepresented to his injury. The police tell a different story. They have been several days hunting up evidence, and now claim to have sufficient to convict, and did not arrest Mr. Scott until they were satisfied of his guilt. The trial will be with closed doors on Saturday.

The Hunter Tract.

The well-known "Hunter tract" has recently been subdivided and is now offered in lots of from 2½ to 20 acres and upwards. These lands are adjacent to the city and are admirably situated for irrigation on account of their proximity to the East Los Angeles ditch. The title is absolutely perfect and purchasers of land will find this new addition to our suburbs a good place to invest money to advantage. G. W. Morgan is sole agent, office room 55 Temple Block. See announcement elsewhere.

Not So Bad.

A prominent business man of this city informed a TIMES reporter yesterday that after a recent extended visit throughout the country he could safely assert that the barley will make a good crop in many sections, fair in others, and at least a hay crop in the poorest places. He believes that the general outlook is highly encouraging, in view of the fact that the abundant fruit crops will make ample amends for the deficiency in grain.

Not Guilty.

In the case of the People against Gauthier, charged with violating the Sunday law, and tried yesterday at Wilmington, the jury acquitted the defendant after an hour's deliberation. The American flag was hoisted in honor of the verdict.

PICNICING.

The Cienega School will Visit Santa Monica Canyon.

The Cienega district school, under the management of the Misses Bishop and Gower, will picnic at Santa Monica Canyon to-day. They have prepared an interesting programme for the occasion and little folks and older ones who are fortunate enough to be in attendance will enjoy the occasion. Following is the programme:

Adjourned.

Newport News.

Mr. Thomas Warren had two brothers come from Streeter, Illinois, last week. They say no more of that country for them. They are delighted with our beautiful valley.

Mr. J. H. Moesser has been appointed Census Marshal for Newport District.

There was a surprise party at Mr. A. P. Kuffel's on Wednesday night, the occasion being Mrs. Kuffel's birthday. They had a nice time in singing, chating and last, but not least, a fine lunch. Kuffel says the Chinamen must go. He has planted all kinds of garden seeds and he says that they are doing well. This is one of the best ways to get the Chinese out of the country—don't buy their trash, don't employ them, get white women to wash and make your clothing, and white men to do your work, and John will surely go. Go East John, to Massachusetts. B.

Valuable Books.

The city library has received twelve large volumes, each the size of Webster's unabridged dictionary, of "Specifications and Drawings of Issued Patents," printed by the Government at Washington. The books are gotten up in the highest style of the typographical art, with a beautiful print, and finely bound. Every patent granted since 1880, is fully described and illustrated, with a neat engraving. The books are retailed to private individuals, by the Government, at prices between two and three hundred dollars apiece. By a special act of Congress, public libraries can buy them at $2.60 apiece. They constitute a collection which are valuable for reference to the whole of Southern California.

Appointments.

The following appointment of officers has been made by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, taking effect May 8th, 1882. It will be seen that Mr. C. F. Smurr has been promoted to a very responsible position, but he has proved by his years of service that he is qualified for it, and at the next turn of the wheel he will take his place at the head of the bureau: J. A. Fillmore, General Superintendent; R. H. Pratt, Assistant General Superintendent; J. C. Stubbs, Freight Traffic Manager; Richard Gray, General Freight Agent; C. F. Smurr, 1st Assistant General Freight Agent; J. M. Crawley, 2d Assistant General Freight Agent; J. B. Wright, Superintendent Sacramento and Oregon Divisions.

Atlantic and Pacific.

Mr. John C. Potts, of Mineral Park, Arizona, informs us that the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad is expected to be completed to Fort Mohave, on the Colorado river, by January next. There is a large number of men at work along the line and they seem to be pushing things, the only drawback being that they cannot procure as many men as they wish to employ. Contractors are now paying $2.60 per day for laborers and board is $5.50 per week. For teams they pay $6.00 per day and grain is worth six cents per pound.

Fine Oranges.

Mr. W. T. Clapp brought in to the TIMES office yesterday, a few choice oranges, from his handsome place at Pasadena, some of which may be seen at the business office. They were the Washington Navel and Paper Rind St. Michael. Both varieties were very fine, sweet and luscious. The St. Michael, though small, and not so fine in appearance as some others, is fast becoming a favorite. It is already a favorite in Europe and Germany, says Mr. Clapp. He will please accept our thanks for the favor.

A Card.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES—Sir: Having heard of an infamous rumor being circulated having regard to my receiving collusion money, I beg to say that I have a comprehensive letter, signed by Seth Daily and Mrs. Bell, in presence of J. C. Morgan, Esq., Deputy District Attorney, denying in toto that I was ever offered, or that I ever received, a cent in any manner whatever, or any valuable consideration from either of them. Respectfully,

RICHARD JNO. BELL.

Los Angeles, May 10, 1882.

The Furniture Manufactory.

A visit to this important manufactory yesterday disclosed the fact that much progress has been made during the past month. The proprietors, Messrs. Hambrook & Ward, are thorough masters of their business, and are constantly adding new styles of furniture. The men are now steadily employed and the business is constantly increasing. The patronage from home merchants has increased largely of late.

AN OHIO REPUBLICAN.

His Views are Sound on the Chinese Question.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:—I find since my sojourn in this portion of your flourishing State, that there is some excitement and no inconsiderable diversity of opinion on what is usually termed the "Chinese question." I fine my own views have been modified by a careful consideration of the subject, and I have come to regard it as a matter of far greater importance, and worthy of more careful investigation than is usually given to it in the Middle and Eastern states.

The question of the immigration of the Chinese and their settlement, whether temporary or permanent, in the country is usually regarded, simply as a labor question, and from this doubtless has arisen much of the diversity of opinion now existing between the people of the East and the West. We frequently hear well informed men saying, that very much of the improvement of the West has been brought about by Chinese labor; that by this labor, rail roads have been constructed, cities built up, farms opened and cultivated, and a degree of advancement and prosperity attained in a very few years which could not have been reached but for the introduction of this peculiar element. Let this be admitted, it is very probably true. Let us go a step farther, and say that the continuation of this species of labor, and the increase of Chinese population to a point very much above what it has yet attained, may still continue to advance the material and physical prosperity of the country. That cheap labor has its advantages in building up a new country none will deny. The interests of labor and of capital are not necessarily opposed to each other, because, as the price of labor diminishes, the greatness and power of capital is increasing. Such a state of things may be and frequently is, entirely consistent with the material growth, advancement and actual well being of a country demanding a large and rapidly increasing population to assure its development. This has been felt and recognized in the East for many years. Every State east of the Mississippi river has been largely dependent on foreign immigration for its material progress. The question of the good and the evil arising from this immigration has been freely discussed, has entered into our state and national politics, and has much to do in the divisions and acerbities of political parties. And yet it is doubtful if it has ever been considered in its most important bearings. It has usually been looked upon as simply a labor question, or as a question how far one or another political party could be benefited or impaired by its continuance. Seldom indeed have we taken the trouble to enquire how far all the interests of society, moral, social, political and material were to be affected by the introduction among us of a foreign element with feelings, habits, modes of living and thinking, and moral and social tendencies, diverse from and frequently opposed to those under which our country has grown up, and gone forward, in the road of progress for nearly three centuries. And yet this is precisely the point which demands consideration.

Few men will deny that what we are endeavoring to work out in this land of ours, is a civilization which shall develop in every point the highest characteristics, and at the same time advance the best interest of the human race. We will assume then, what also few will deny, and what the history of our race, if we take the time carefully to investigate it, will fully uphold—namely, that the civilization of the Anglo-Saxon, or speaking in a broader sense, as well say the civilization of the Aryan race, is that which is to-day bringing mankind up to the highest point of moral and civil improvement and well being. This proposition admitted, which can not only be readily substantiated, but which I apprehend our federal legislators will not be prone to dispute, and then it follows that whatever stands in the way of the complete establishment and perfection of this civilization, should be viewed with a jealous eye, and its introduction to any undue extent carefully guarded. European immigration, while it has added so much to our material advancement, has not been by any means free from objections in its moral and civil relations, yet the fact that the subjects of this immigration, poured so freely upon our shores, because in no great length of time assimilated to, and largely identified with our own people, casting in their lot among us and uniting with us in endeavoring to work out the great problem of the greatest good for the greatest number, and in many cases becoming leaders among us, in social and civil reforms and progress, these facts have smoothed the way for their reception, and have soon, in a good degree, obliterated the marks of difference which at one time seemed likely to block our way. But the question arises, can we afford to admit into our ranks, simply in social and business life, saying nothing of their political status, which is a question for after consideration, a large body of men and women, who from the time they came among us have not, and in the nature of things, we may say, cannot, and will not now, or hereafter, mingle themselves with us, and become assimilated to our modes of living, thinking and acting. This brings us to the very core of the Chinese question. The Chinese civilization is older than ours, it is far more fixed, more immovable. It is so completely indurated, crystallized by the accretions of ages, that it has become inpenetrable. We cannot impress ourselves upon it, we can change none of its features, none of its facts. Such as it is to-day, such it will remain, so every new thousand of immigrants increases its power, but does not change its form. If it is a less perfect civilization than ours to-day, so it will be to-morrow, next year and forever. Established among us it blocks the way of progress. If we value the progress we have made, and desire to go forward, this obstacle must be removed out of our way. It is folly to say, we want Chinese; labor we must have it and we shall not permit them to interfere with our manners' our institutions or our business. Had four millions of negroes no effect on the manners, institutions or business affairs of the twelve millions of whites among whom they lived? Let history answer the question. Yet these negroes were only manual laborers, forbidden to think, without civilization and without progress; but the Chinese are a nation of thinkers, shrewd calculators, insinuating themselves into every avenue of business, and forcing every species of business or trade in which they engage to conform to their modes and habits of life and thought. The question is not a narrow one, shall we have Mongolian civilization or Anglo-Saxon? shall we go forward or shall we stand still? shall the American or the Asiatic rule on the Pacific coast? We may as well look the matter calmly in the face and determine what we wish to do before we are forced to act whether we wish it or not. It is no time to bring in political parties to settle a question which belongs to the nation and is above all parties. The Republican has the same interest here as the Democrat—no more, nor no less. We can tolerate the Chinaman so long as he is not so powerful, by his numbers, as to outweigh us in the social or commercial scale. Whenever he is so, his presence is an unmitigated evil. There is no call for force, no need of mob law, the worst of all laws; no need of any organization or system of action outside of the laws of the State or the nation. Clear, cool, careful, deliberate investigation and action are what is needed, and these will arrest the evil; nay, may do, what God's providence is continually doing in this world, may adduce great good, from what without careful direction will certainly become the source of evil irremediable.

The President will in all probability sign the bill which the Congress have just passed, it may not be the best which could have been made, but it gives the nation and your own State time to think, time to act carefully and deliberately. From it, as we believe, no harm can arise, while wisdom and prudence may found on its provisions a cause of action from which the world will be the gainer. If the bill does not become a law now, it will at least cause the question to be thoroughly investigated, and if all rash measures be repressed, time will bring us to a correct solution of its difficulties.
